Babysitter

The Babysitter app is designed to connect parents with babysitters. This app allows parents to find babysitters based on various criteria like location, experience, and hourly wage. Babysitters can register and offer their services, setting up profiles that include their details and preferences.

Course
[24A10357]
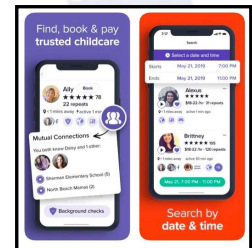

Presented by
Noa Gilboa

ID
206375057

The purpose

The purpose of the Babysitter app is to facilitate connections between parents and babysitters. The app serves as a platform where parents can search for and connect with babysitters who meet their specific childcare needs, such as location, availability, experience, and hourly wage rates.
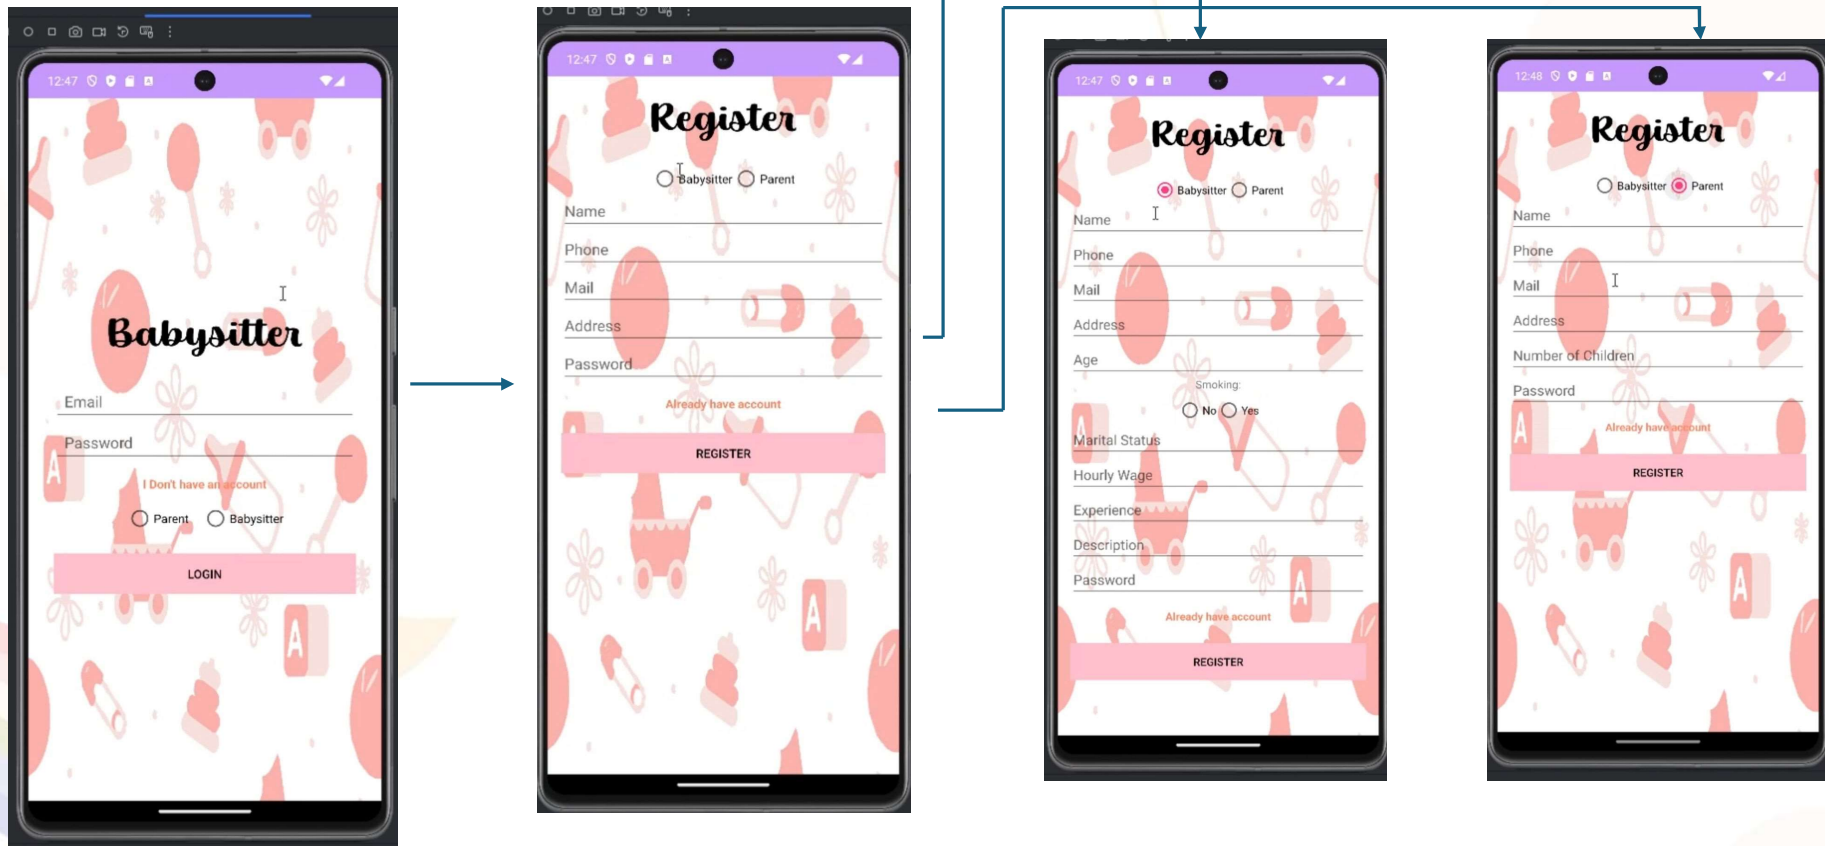

Market Research

There are more than 10 similar Applications :

Babysitting, Sittercity, Care.com, UrbanSitter, Bubble, Helpr, Bambino, Komae, Nanno, Sittr etc.
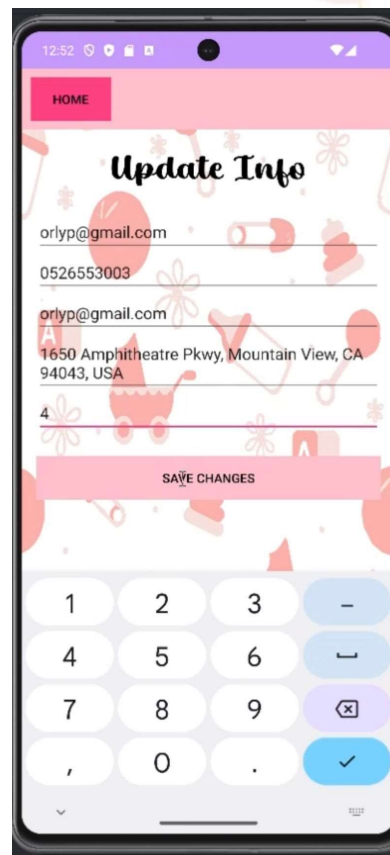

My App mock up
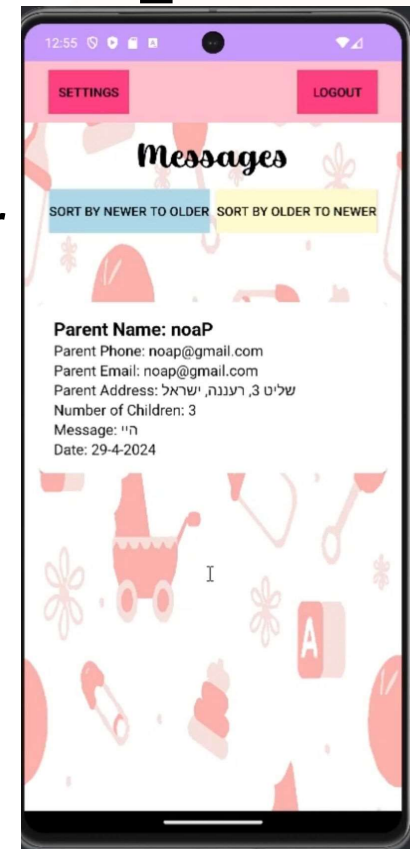

My App mock up

The parent home page:

The setting page:

The babysitter home page:

Features & servers

- User Registration and Login: Separate registration processes for babysitters and parents. Users can log in to their accounts to access their profiles and settings.

- Profile Management: Users can update their profiles, including contact information, services offered, and availability.

- Search and Filter: Parents can search for babysitters using filters like location, experience, and hourly wage.

- Real-time Chat: Once connected, parents and babysitters can communicate through a built-in messaging system.

- Location Services: Integration with Google Maps to help users find babysitters near their location.